

DEFENSE TRIAL COUNSEL OF INDIANA

Make a Difference:
Help impact changes in the law and legislation.

We are a premier defense organization composed of defense and corporate practitioners with an emphasis on a diverse litigation practice. Our members devote a substantial portion of their practice to the defense of claims, actions or suits against individuals, companies, corporations, or agencies.

LEGISLATIVE INVOLVEMENT

The DTCI is involved in the legislative process through regular participation in Amicus Briefs, Judicial Nominations & Lobbying activities affecting the defense bar.

Our Amicus committee reviews many appellate cases each year and often submits briefs on behalf of the defense bar.

Our full-time Lobbyist and legislative committee scour proposed legislation and report to the DTCI Board of Directors any potential legislation which will effect defense attorneys.

Not just for the Private Practitioner, we're meeting the needs of In-House & Corporate Counsel as well.

Educational Programs

ANNUAL CONFERENCE & MEETING of the MEMBERSHIP:

This annual 2-day program is geared toward the continuing legal education of the defense lawyer on the latest developments and strategies in the legal community. This event presents a wonderful opportunity to meet and network with colleagues and friends.

This meeting is when our Directors and Officers are elected.

ROOKIE SEMINAR: This is a biennial event focused on providing crucial knowledge to the young lawyer practicing three years or less. A group of highly experienced and respected attorneys make up the faculty for this event.

Paralegals often attend and benefit from this seminar as well.

Obtain CLE Credits by attending meetings and conferences.

SUBSTANTIVE LAW SECTION MEETINGS: Held regularly throughout the year, these meetings are conducted by each section to develop and maintain communications regarding specific practice areas.

Sections communicate electronically through periodic newsletters and email updates.

NETWORKING

The DTCI is the only statewide organization strictly designed to meet the needs and solve the problems of the defense attorney. Joining will give you an opportunity to meet and work with some of Indiana's finest Defense Practitioners as well as develop a solid referral system.

E-MAIL INFORMATION SHARING.: The DTCI has developed an on-line service whereby attorneys may share information instantly regarding experts, briefs and legal issues.

PUBLICATIONS

You will have the opportunity to be published in periodicals and journals. Our Indiana Civil Litigation Review is a scholarly journal, which is sent to all DTCI members, state court judges, and law school libraries. The articles in the Journal are primarily written by DTCI members. Our on-line Publications Section of our web site gives you the ability to review the most current articles and case reports instantly.

SUBSTANTIVE LAW SECTIONS:

Business Litigation, Construction Law, Employment Law, Health Law Litigation, Insurance Coverage, Product Liability, Trial Tactics, and Workers' Compensation. Join any of the law sections at no additional cost and stay apprised of updates relative to your practice area.

PARALEGALS

DTCI offers an associate membership (non-voting) to paralegals working in the area of defense. These members function within a structured sub-section, holding regular educational seminars and meetings. This section is dedicated to the professional development of defense paralegals working in member firms. Our paralegal members receive all of the benefits of attorney members and are always invited to attend attorney events.
